Jesse called the meeting to order

- Minutes from Oct 5th meeting were approved with a correction that Sarah Kelly owner of Apple Tree Café was Edgar Wink’s sister also.
- Lela reported balance of $1,755.18 in the bank. $896 was deposited from Jena Pull and State Fair Pull. An outstanding check in the amount of $677.00 to Shane Ard for the gun that was raffled.

OLD BUSINESS

- RAFFLE TICKETS – Ticket sales for the raffle was pretty good. We didn’t keep an exact count but we think we made about $500 off of the gun. When went to pay for the gun, Shane Ard told Chester the gun we were raffling off was on sale for October for $677 instead of $800+. The report was approved. RANDY CARSON won the raffle.
- STATE FAIR PULL – It rained the Pull out on Friday but had a super day on Saturday. Most of our members won in their class 1st 2nd or 3rd.
- CLUB DUES – Bill Little reported that their Club chose to absorb the extra $4 per person for insurance. Club voted to accept this policy also for Boeuf River. The membership dues will stay $25 with $12 of that going to insurance.

NEW BUSINESS

- ❖ Bill Little suggested that next year at the Ruston Pull we might want to look into the radio station at 94.1 doing a remote during the Pull. It might cost a little but could be shared by both clubs and might pull in more spectators if they listen to the radio that day. Will discuss before the Ruston Pull next year.
- ❖ THERE WILL BE NO DECEMBER MEETING.
- ❖ NEXT MEETING – Club voted to meet at the Picadilly on Louisville in Monroe for the next meeting which will be January 4th. (1st Friday in each month)
- ❖ Also, at January meeting we will vote on President and Secretary for the next two years.
- ❖ SPECIAL APPRECIATION to Sarah Kelly of Apple Tree Café for an excellent meal and meeting place. She also donated several items for our door prizes.
- ❖
- ❖ Motion was made and seconded to adjourn.
